Letter of Reference

Haslinah binti Osman (S 7209568£) is currently teaching 'The Reading Programme' which is conducted in Residents' Committee Centres and Community Centres in Singapore..

The Reading Programme is an English programme for five and six year olds. It consists of reading, phonics and speech..

We have observed Haslinah to be a dedicated and responsible teacher. Her teaching ability is of a high standard. She is also well-liked by her pupils.

Yours sincerely,

test procedures developed by:

University of Oxford
Delegacy of Local Examinations
England

This is to certify that

HASLINAH BINTI OSMAN

has the following strengths and weaknesses in English:

In terms of grammatical accuracy, she is fairly good at constructing sentences correctly and is able to apply the rules of usage.

Her vocabulary is of a fairly wide range, i.e. she is able to understand words and phrases used even in communication settings that are fairly complex. Her choice of words is normally appropriate in most contexts.

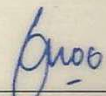

She has attained a high level of competence in comprehension, i.e. she is normally able to understand not only the essential messages and details but also the implied meanings of fairly complex texts and utterances.

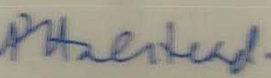

She has a fair mastery of the organisational and production skills in social and formal discourse, i.e. she is able to interact appropriately in a moderate range of communicative situations.

Her overall English language proficiency score places her at band 6 on the 9 bands. To use English as a communication tool, she is likely to be successful in a range of situations.
